

NATHAN DURKEE.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 244.]

JANUARY 10, 1832.

Mr. DOUBLEDAY, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Nathan Durkee, report:

The petitioner entered as a volunteer in a regiment commanded by Colonel Seth Warner; served against the common enemy, in the revolutionary war, more than one year; whilst on a scout was poisoned, by which he suffered much sickness, and his constitution was ever after impaired: he is aged, infirm, and destitute of property. These facts are proved by several witnesses. Your committee believe he ought to receive a pension; and, therefore, report a bill.

NATHAN DUBKEE.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 344.]

JANUARY 10, 1832.

Mr. DUBKEE, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Nathan Dubkee, report:

The petitioner entered as a volunteer in a regiment commanded by Colonel Seth Warner, served against the common enemy in the revolutionary war, more than one year; whilst on a scout was poisoned by which he suffered much sickness, and his constitution was ever after impaired. He is aged, infirm, and destitute of property. These facts are proved by several witnesses. Your committee believe he ought to receive a pension, and, therefore, report a bill.